SUMMARY

I am a hardworking and diligent university student seeking employment through internships and part-time/full-time opportunities. I bring a hard-working and motivated mindset, along with my set of skills, to strive for what is best for the team and overall business. I excel in communication as I have gained the right experience through various encounters with daily consumers. I am willing to present these skills through an opportunity within the business-related field. My aim is to continue developing my knowledge and seek to provide my all-set skills to provide to the business environment.
